H.R. 1071
September 11 Family Humanitarian Relief and Patriotism Act

As ordered reported by the House Committee on the Judiciary on August 2, 2007

H.R. 1071 would grant permanent U.S. residence to certain spouses and dependents of aliens who died in the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001. Enacting this legislation could affect direct spending of immigration fees by the Department of Homeland Security and the cost of certain federal assistance programs. The bill would likely affect a small number of persons, however, and CBO estimates that enacting H.R. 1071 would have no significant budgetary impact. Enacting the bill would not affect revenues.

H.R. 1701 contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act and would impose no significant costs on state, local, or tribal governments.
