H.J. Res. 62
To grant the consent of Congress to the boundary change between Georgia and South Carolina

As ordered reported by the Senate Committee on the Judiciary on October 21, 1999

H.J. Res. 62 would give Congressional consent to a specified boundary change between Georgia and South Carolina. Enacting the resolution would result in no cost to the federal government. Because enactment of H.J. Res. 62 would not affect direct spending or receipts, pay-as-you-go procedures would not apply. The resolution contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act and would impose no costs on state, local, or tribal governments.

On August 5, 1999, CBO prepared an identical cost estimate for H.J. Res. 62 as ordered reported by the House Committee on the Judiciary on August 3, 1999.

The CBO staff contact for this estimate is Lanette J. Keith. This estimate was approved by Peter H. Fontaine, Deputy Assistant Director for Budget Analysis.
