H.J. Res. 105

A joint resolution conferring honorary citizenship of the United States on Bernardo de Galvez y Madrid, Viscount of Galveston and Count of Galvez

As ordered reported by the House Committee on the Judiciary on July 10, 2014

The Congressional Budget Office has reviewed H.J. Res. 105, a joint resolution conferring honorary citizenship of the United States posthumously on Bernardo de Galvez y Madrid, Viscount of Galveston and Count of Galvez. CBO estimates that enacting H.J. Res. 105 would result in no significant cost to the federal government and would not affect direct spending or revenues; therefore, pay-as-you-go procedures do not apply.

H.J. Res 105 contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act and would not affect the budgets of state, local, or tribal governments.

The CBO staff contact for this estimate is Mark Grabowicz. The estimate was approved by Theresa Gullo, Deputy Assistant Director for Budget Analysis.
