
CBO Estimate of the Statutory Pay-As-You-Go Effects for H.R. 5026, an act to amend the Federal Power Act to protect the bulk-power system and electric infrastructure critical to the defense of the United States against cybersecurity and other threats and vulnerabilities, as ordered reported by the Senate Committee on Energy and Natural Resources on August 5, 2010, with an amendment transmitted on December 16, 2010 (version END10C44)

December 16, 2010

	By Fiscal Year, in Millions of Dollars
	2011	2012	2013	2014	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2011 - 2015	2011 - 2020
NET INCREASE OR DECREASE (-) IN THE DEFICIT
Statutory Pay-As-You-Go Impact	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0

Source: Congressional Budget Office.

H.R. 5026 would amend existing law regarding the regulation of facilities that transmit electric power. Enacting the legislation would affect net direct spending by the Tennessee Valley Authority and Bonneville Power Administration, but CBO estimates that such costs would be negligible because the new standards would be similar to those currently followed by federal agencies as a result of other statutory directives.
